Dear Dr. Xiao-Bo Qiu

This is to formally invite you to “the 2017 International Conference on Protein Degradation and Diseases” that will be held at Sorak during July 6th-8th, 2017. You are one of the invited foreign speakers.

Protein Metabolism Medical Research Center (PMMRC) at Seoul National University School of Medicine annually hosts this conference. Approximately 150 scientists in the field of protein degradation and related topics will participate in this 2-day conference and share recent results and trends. PMMRC will support the expenses for your round-way flight, a full-time limousine service with an English-speaking designated driver, hotel rooms, and meals (breakfast, lunch, and dinner) at hotels.

Please let me know if you have any questions about this conference.

Sincerely,

Yong Tae Kwon, PhD
